

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE, SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1866.

LIBRARY ITEMS.

Harper & Brothers will soon publish "Felix Holt," the "Ruler" I, by the author of "Ariel Bell," and "English Travellers and Their Books." A "Narrative of Captain and Comptroller," by J. C. Moore.

D. Appleton & Co., have, in press new editions of Beck's "Cicerone," and "Italia," the second volume of the Emperor's "Per de Tiber Chiaro," in French; Quinqueviges' "Practical Arithmetic," and cheap re-issues of several modern standard novels, including Miss Mulock's "Oliver," and "The Head of the Family"; Mrs. Gaskell's "Mary Barton," and T. A. Trollope's "Lindbergh Chase."

Lindbergh & Blakiston announce "Reynolds on Diseases of the Brain and Nervous System"; "Remake Electro-Therapeutics"; and "Ullis on the Sale of Ability of Pain in Labor and Surgical Operations."

Leybold & Holt will shortly issue four new volumes of their elegant 12mo edition of Thackeray's works. "Vanity Fair" will occupy three volumes, and "The Great Hogarth Diamond" and "The Book of Snobs" will make up the fourth.

Sheldon & Co. are preparing a new edition of Macaulay's "History of England," on tinted paper, to match the Riverside issue of the "Essays," and an edition of "Thibault on the Gospel of John." They are also reprinting "Morning by Morning," by Rev. C. H. Spurgeon.

M. Doolyann announces "The Life of Jeff Davis and Stonewall Jackson," by a South Carolinian.

M. W. Dodd has in press a new work on Asiatic Cities, by Dr. Whistler.

De Vries, Illarria & Co., Boston, and Leybold & Holt, New-York, are about to publish, in quarto, the Italian text of the Divina Commedia, with all the illustrations.

J. C. Jute, Capetown, Cape of Good Hope, announces a small edition of "The Birds of South Africa;" a descriptive catalogue of all the known species occurring south of lat. 29° by Edgar Leopold Layard, Curator of the South African Museum and Fellow of the Zoological Society. Orders are received in New-York by B. Westerman & Co.

Orange Judd & Co. have, in press Dr. John A. Wardle's treatise on "Apples;" a revised edition of Harry's "Fruit Garden;" A. S. Failes' "Small Garden Culturist;" Wm. N. White's "Practical and Scientific Gardening;" "Market and Family Gardening" by a well-known practical gardener of New-Jersey; and "Pest and its Uses," by Prof. S. Johnson of Yale College.

James Miller is preparing, as a Christmas Gift Book, "Poems of Childhood," by Mrs. Browning, with illustrations by Honorey and Thwaites. He has also in press a new and beautiful illustrated edition of T. Addison Richards' "Central Park Guide."

T. B. Peterson & Brothers have nearly ready a new novel, by Mrs. Henry Wood, entitled "Easter's Folly," printed from the author's manuscript and proof-sheets.

Nichols & Noyes have recently published "The Little Things of Nature, considered especially in Relation to the Divine Benevolence," by Prof. L. H. Griswold; "Our Eternal Homes," by a Bible Student, from the fourth London edition; and "Christian Lessons and a Christian Life," being a volume of sermons by Samuel Abbott Smith, with a memoir by Edward J. Young.

D. Appleton & Co. have just published "A Brief Treatise upon Constitutional and Party Questions, and the History of Political Parties, as I Received It Orally from the Late Senator Stephen A. Douglas, of Illinois." By J. Madison Cutts, Grove Lent, Col. U. S. Army.

Madame Jessie White Mario, the English wife of the well-known Italian parrot, has written a short account of the work performed by our Sanitary Commission and various women's associations during the war, and has published it for the purpose of stimulating the Italian women to similar exertions during the present contest in Europe. At her request the Rev. Dr. Bowles has prepared, for publication in the newspapers of Italy, a letter to Mr. Dunnant, Secretary of the "Comitato Internazionale," giving some details of "what the women of America have done to promote our national cause, and to exhort and succor the heroes who were fighting for it." An interesting correspondence between Madame Mario and Dr. Bowles appeared in The Christian Register for July 5.

NEW BOOKS THIS WEEK.

THE APOSTLES.

PUBLISHED BY HARPER & BROTHERS, NEW-YORK.

A translation of Erneste Renan's great book, just published in Paris, where it is creating a great sensation. The author is the second son of Renan's "Origine du Christianisme," the first of which was his "Life of Jesus," which made so deep an impression a year ago. * Price $1.50.

This new book has just made its appearance in Paris, and the whole interest of the world is centered in it. The thoughts contained were not all publication day, and the future was nearly as great as it was when "The Life of Jesus" fell like a thunderbolt upon the Roman Church a year or so ago.

THE OLD MERCHANTS OF NEW-YORK.
